Intended for the younger generation of researchers

- The LSBR celebrated 25 years of granting scientific research and presents a one-time grant with a budget of 1.6 million Euro, to be spent within 5 years.
- This grant is specifically intended for the younger generation of researchers working in the research fitting within the aims of the LSBR and for future collaborations. Exchange of knowledge and personnel is part of the grant.
- Participants: at least three research institutes/groups. One of these can be an institute abroad.
- Applications need to be submitted by researchers who will be working on this grant for the whole grant period and with a PhD not longer than 20 years ago (obtained after 31 December 2004).
- Applications are based on collaboration and synergism.
- Free exchange of PhD students, expertise and equipment is encouraged and the project should contribute to new talent development.
- There will be one applicant responsible for administration of the research and all communication with the LSBR. (corresponding applicant)
- The project proposals will be reviewed by the LSBR Scientific Advisory Council as well as external reviewers.
- The grant will have no effect on the budget for regular grants in 2025 (3 million Euro) and onwards.
